

2017 Kentucky Civics Symposium

Join us for this free professional learning opportunity hosted by the Kentucky Department of Education. The Kentucky Civic Symposium will provide educators with hands-on support in creating civic curricula with robust, relevant learning experiences for students in an effort to promote the “doing” of social studies through action civics.

- Learn new social studies-related strategies that engage and motivate students
- Dig into effective strategies for improved student achievement
- Gain deeper understanding of civics best practices

Information on the new required Citizenship Test will be provided.
